UN Launches Gates-Funded Global Digital ID Program as Experts Warn of 'Totalitarian Nightmare'

The program was launched at the UN in Bolivia's Gates Foundation, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB).

The UNDP launched the Global Digital Public Infrastructure Repository (DPI Repository) to "accelerate the development of a global digital public infrastructure (DPI)."

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) said the DPI Repository campaign will spur the construction of "an underlying network of components" that will "enable the delivery of public and private services at scale" and will be "a critical enabler of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)."

The goal of the campaign is for 50 countries to have designed, implemented and scaled DPI systems that operate in a safe, inclusive and interoperable manner in five years," the UNDP stated.

The two party system and election process are designed to fool us into believing we actually have a real choice, or voice in the decision making process, or a democracy. We live in a full-blown oligarchy in which all our institutions are owned and controlled by a small class of filthy rich billionaires, corporate interests, and powerful bankers. Their interests are inimical to ours and most of humanity's. In fact they are clearly actively trying to impoverish, poison, and kill most of us, and Trump has does nothing but help them advance their agenda and achieve their goals for total ownership of the wealth of the world and absolute social control and political power. Wake up before it's too late! It will be very soon...

Excellent point. Most are satisfied with looking "left" or looking "right" to find the truth. But by looking up and by looking down one can really find the truth. Up at the spraying of deadly chemicals in the sky. Down to see where old Henry has finally landed and awaits the arrival of Billy Boy. At that point, both will have served humanity well by providing a massive reduction of two useless resource and power gluttons. Actually it's best to look all around with open eyes to the truth.

I certainly don't think Gates is "the Man," or the embodiment of all evil... I was simply implying Gates, like Humpty Dumpty, will eventually fall, and I won't lose any sleep over it. If you want to dig deeper, I image the discussion would eventually lead to God's Sovereignty... Personally I don't believe everything 'will be fine' until God's plan is complete, because Gates, like Nebuchadnezzar before him, is actually an instrument of God's to teach us by: (Assuming their is truth within the Biblical Word...)

The people have more power than they know. If people just refuse to participate in these things and/or find their own work-arounds, they'll flop. Do business with like-minded people who desire to remain free.

Does it bother anyone else to read "the U.N. sees smaller nations as a "unique threat," because their leaders are occasionally accountable to the people" Silly me.(thought leaders were supposed to be accountable to their people. Looks like the global elites have a different idea about loyalty. Expletive them.

I've already been denied the ability to send parcels overseas from Japan because I don't have a smartphone and I can't use a wireless Internet-connected tablet.

It's also amazing how many services out there have no options for customers who don't have a cell phone. You pretty much need some way to receive text messages now, though thankfully that can usually be worked around with services like Google Voice (though if I could find a similar option from a better company I would, but it's less terrible and costly than a smartphone). But some companies refuse to use those phone numbers and pretty much give a clear indication that they don't want customers who don't have cell phones, preferably smartphones.

That doesn't even get me started on the concerns of having so much security verification related things tied to a device that can be so easily lost, stolen, or damaged beyond repair. I've done cell phone support for years and lost/stolen or badly damaged phones were the most common reason for people to call in and to be honest, it seems people lose access to their phones far more in their lifetimes than they lose access to physical ids.

I have been saying that for a long time. In fact, I wrote a poem about it:

Cell Phone

Your cell phone is your ball and chain,
the vampire that will drain your brain;
the tool that's turned you to a slave no matter what you may believe.

And now the government knows all,
and Google copies every call,
and Apple multiplies your fame,
and even Yahoo knows your name.

You may decide it doesn't matter and still continue online chatter, and tighten thus around your neck
a collar you may never break.

And so, you have become enslaved,
a servant of the thug you craved,
you helped them lead you by the nose
in bondage that the whole world knows.

The Grand Inquisitor has said that humans gave up all for bread;
they'd rather cell phones than be free,
which may suffice for you but not for me.

Yes, but the problem is that the evil plan has made us all so dependent on technology that it runs the world. The next step is to plug us all into it for absolute control. We are up against forces that are as smart and calculating as they are evil.

Gates needs a hobby. He always goes after Africa because he's a eugenicist racist. Why this guy is still walking around is beyond me.

He uses Africans as test subjects for his beloved vaccines. He also uses them to unload deadly vaccines that are banned elsewhere. How easy to depopulate the black races.

Amazing all the things going on that are "hidden in plain sight", as are those who fund and support them. The best way for them to turn around and claim that "it was all out in the open, you should have known."

Geoengineering is a prime example of this. All you have to do is literally look up to see it, but the few who do look are still unable to see it.

Funny how they are all so hell-bent on suddenly getting "services and economic opportunities" to poor people just when it happens to involve a digital tracking and surveillance infrastructure – but not before.

Aimed at "Low income" countries ..? Why not say Africa, who don't like Bill Gates anyway...!
To deal with Food Shortage, Public Health Threats,Climate Change, Economic Recovery...?
All Created by Rich Northern Hemisphere Countries in the First place.
They let the Cat out the Bag with including Singapore, in the First 11 countries to be "Attacked".
Small Countries need to be Ruled by "Them"... Not a Sovereign Right.?
Who enjoy "Self Determination".
They want to stop Sovereign countries refusing their "Favourable Products"....
A name for Poisoned Vaxxines.!
This is supported by WEF, G20, Gates, who want to Control "Critical Thinkers"...?
They say countries should have these "Inclusive Entities" (Digital Identification)?
When infact, ever Vanguard, Black Rock, State Street, have All your info, from Birth to your Early Grave.!
Then you will become an "Excluded Entity" if you don't Comply.
This is a growing Cancerous Take Over ,by the Tyrannical Global Elitists.
Just Don't do it, say No now.

Nov 2, 2023 Bill Gates' SHOCKING Population Control Plans

In today's video, we're diving into some big questions about Bill Gates. Some people are saying he's trying to control the number of people in the world. They're talking about a "death panel" idea and how much money he's put into vaccines and health care for women. We look at times when Gates said things that make it seem like he wants fewer people on the planet. What's he really up to? We also check out what's happening in Canada with people choosing to end their lives with help from doctors, and how groups like the World Economic Forum might be involved. Our video is all about guessing what Bill Gates might do next and why it's a big deal if one person gets to make huge decisions for everyone.

As far as Gates is concerned, I'm at a loss for words. He and everything he touches can be wrapped up into one word - INSANITY. Not only relating to him, but the fact that he still has a platform from which to spew his narcissistic evil. God please forgive me, but the world will certainly be a better place when he joins Henry down below.

I think we don't have much power at all, if how people complied to mask wearing is anything to go by. These guys will bring in CBDC's which is a social credit system, institutions will adopt them, and you will be forced out of society if you don't participate. All the intelligence in the world won't help if you can't get food or pay your mortgage using banned cash. The power momentum of Gates and his ilk is enormous, in the grand scheme of their agendas we are peons, and unless we determine to organize in numbers and develop alternate systems, we will be overtaken by the oncoming waves of subjugation now quite visible on the horizon. Interesting to see the power dynamics at play in the series 'The gilded age', Gates is playing the part today, worse though, because the power barons have vastly more effective tools of control. The thing with decentralized crypto, which would be fantastic for individual sovereignty is that the government with a stroke of a pen with or without excuses, can ban or regulate it away from being decentralized. Even though travel has become more inconvenient at airports since 9/11, and travellers are treated as though they were cattle in a mart, people go along with it. I think it will be the same with surrendering their freedom to a social credit system whatever form it takes.
